COMMUNITY ACTION

Don Davis from Craftsmen for Kids, Inc made a delivery of wooden toys to GMN Caldwell Head Start. One of the new items introduced is a sensory writing box. Each box comes with a complete set of alphabet tiles so children will be able to trace that letter in the sand. Alyza Green also found a different way to make the letter of the alphabet. She used it as a stamp.

Thomas Harris and Michael Touville said: “Look, we are making our school!” They used the set of large, medium, and small hollow blocks as well as some cardboard blocks to work together and build “the school”.

This is Don with the children; showing them all of the learning materials he brought for them. A huge THANK YOU goes out to Don and the entire work crew of Craftsmen for Kids, Inc.
